

PERSONAL COMMITMENT TO TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

We all have a role to play in listening to and understanding the truth and bringing about reconciliation between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada. Accountability is key! Share the Personal Commitment worksheet with others and make yourself accountable to each other for fulfilling the work. Who will walk this path with you?

When and where did your journey begin?

Where are you now compared to when you started? (How have your understandings changed? How has your awareness translated into action? Are you better at having tough conversations about colonization, white privilege and racism? Have you included others in your learning?)

What are your goals for the next year of Truth and Reconciliation? (Think about how you can deepen your learning, translate education into action at home, work, and community)

How much time will I commit to my learning? (How will this fit in your schedule)
